

Spring 2018 Scholarships

DUE NOVEMBER 17TH!

TO APPLY:

1. Visit southernregional.awardspring.com

Site is only available through the latest versions of your web browser.

2. Register your account using your primary email address.

You are not required to use your student email.

3. Complete each required section -

General Information, Academic Information,

Letters of Recommendation, and Qualification Questions

Please upload your unofficial transcript (copied from banner web) in the Academic Information section. Indicate the cumulative GPA listed on your transcript.

4. Submit your general application.

The scholarships you are eligible to apply for are visible in your dashboard.

5. Complete the follow up for all visible scholarships

You will be prompted to type an essay (minimum 250 words) and upload additional requirements of the scholarship.

6. Submit your essay for each scholarship you are eligible to apply for

After submitting an essay, your application for that specific scholarship is complete.

Please note: you must enter your correct GPA, request and receive (via AwardSpring) a minimum of two professional letters of recommendation (one from SRTC faculty), and upload all the required information (original essay for each scholarship, residency documentation, and transcripts) in order to be considered for SRTC scholarships. Incomplete or late applications will not be reviewed. Essay duplication or failure to meet the minimum 250 word requirement will result in disqualification.*
