SRTC
SOUTHERN REGIONAL TECHNICAL COLLEGE

WHAT IS S△FE?

Colleges and universities around the country have become more diligent and proactive in providing a safe environment for students, faculty, staff, and visitors to their campuses. More recently, the Technical College System of Georgia (TCSG) now requires all technical colleges to have a behavioral intervention team. The team is dedicated to a proactive, coordinated, and planned approach to the identification, prevention, assessment, management, and reduction of interpersonal and behavioral threats to the safety and well-being of all Southern Regional Technical College students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

Our team is called S△FE or Safety Awareness For Everyone.

It is the responsibility of faculty, staff, and students to immediately report any situation that could possibly result in harm to anyone in the college community.

If a concern is behavioral, emotional, medical mental health, personal hardship, danger to self or others, the S△FE Team would want to be made aware to see if additional help can be provided.

Be aware of what's going on around you
and report
suspicious activity.

S△FE'S ROLE

- S△FE's primary function is to keep the College community safe.
- S△FE is supportive in nature and seeks to act preventively with distressed persons.

WHAT DOES THE TEAM DO?

- S△FE gathers and manages reported information from concerned students, faculty, and staff.
- Assesses the level of threat an individual's behavior may pose.
- Makes referrals internal and external to the College.
- Provides faculty and staff with support and intervention resources.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I AM CONCERNED?

- Speak with the individual and express your concern about his or her behavior and how it is impacting your environment.
- Inform and encourage the person to utilize support services that are available for him or her on campus.
- Offer to help them to make an appointment or walk with them to where they can get help.
- If you do not feel safe talking alone to the individual, seek support from a College representative from faculty, counseling, human resources, student affairs, or campus police.
- When in doubt...Make a Call!
- If you are uncertain whether an individual's behavior is concerning, disruptive, or threatening, do not hesitate to consult with campus police or a College official.

Together
we keep SRTC SAFE.
